

Tweet to Tucker Carlson-01-16-2022

Your January 15, 2022 program featured a guest representing an after-school program which engaged in some sort of satanic education. I believe this situation is the kind our founders foresaw and John Adams was referring to when he said, "Our Constitution is designed only for a moral and religious people.

It is wholly inadequate for any other."

In the satanic education instance, your guest seemed to argue his was a religion like any other and should be afforded the same rights. Indeed, the constitution does provide such protection for religious expression.

However, at this point a moral and religious people must intervene and decide what can be considered a religion and entitled to constitutional protection. Such points of departure from the Constitution have always been murky and ill-defined such as freedom of speech protecting shouting "Fire!" in a crowded theatre. But, it is our duty as a moral and religious people to hold up our end of the bargain with the Constitution and provide appropriate guidance in day-to-day life when the limits of the Constitution are reached.